

5th International Specialised Conference
July 2009
Helsinki – Finland

LIST OF ABSTRACTS

---

Subtheme 1: The Changing Nation: citizens, visitors, neighbours

1. Virpi Juppo and Sari Niemi – Finland

Participation Devices of Finnish Ethnic Minorities

2. Hans Peter Bull – Germany

Nation-Building and the role of public administration: The case of Germany

3. Steven Van de Walle and Zoe Scott – respectively from The Netherlands and United Kingdom

The Role of Public Services in State and Nation Building: Exploring Lessons from European History

4. Kalu N Kalu – USA

Institution-Building, Not Nation-Building: A Structural-Functional Model

5. Hannele Isola-Miettinen – Finland

Citizens' rights in the charter of fundamental rights of European Union

6. Rinna Ikola-Norrbacka, Johanna Jokisuu and Kirsi Lähdesmäki – Finland

The profile of a decent citizen? Self-evaluations of citizens

7. Muiris MacCarthaigh – Ireland

Nation-building and the Irish administrative system: Mapping and understanding change 1924-2008

8. Marius Vacarelu – Romania

Recreating nations after communism: Is EU final destination?

9. Irfan Haslak, Ozer Koseoglu and Serdar Gulener – Turkey

Bureaucracy as a hegemonic power in nation building: the Turkish experience

10. Randal G Stewart – Australia

Australia - a nation building state changes its mind, back?

11. Pertti P Ahonen – Finland

Citizens, Visitors and Neighbours: Finland's today and tomorrow in the light of her yesterday

12. Berry Tholen – The Netherlands

The Changing Border

13. Steven Van de Walle and Sandra Groeneveld – The Netherlands

Contingent Representativity: Rival Views of Representative Bureaucracy and the Challenges for Nation Builders

14. A Argun Akdogan – Turkey

Bureaucracy as the Architect of Citizenship/ Task accomplished?

15. Donald E Klingner – USA

Nation-Building and Institutional Development in Iraq and other High Security Risk Nations

Subtheme 2: Exemplifying good governance: The future of the public service and democracy

16. Geert Bouckaert and John Halligan – respectively from Belgium and Australia

The Roles of Trust and Performance in the Evolving Relationship between Public Servants and Citizens

17. Enrique Saravia – Brazil

Citizen engagement in public policy decision-making: overcoming illiteracy and the digital divide in Minas Gerais, Brazil

18. Pradeep K Saxena – India

Good Governance - How much Developing Countries Achieved: A case study of Rajasthan with special reference to the Power (Electricity) sector

19. Hiroko Kudo – Japan

Public Service in particular territories: from Experiences in Italian Special Autonomous Regions

20. Geraldine Fraser-Moleketi and Demetrios Argyriades – USA

After November 4th: a Paradigmatic Shift in the Practice of Democracy and Good Governance?

21. Francesca Gains and Gerry Stoker – United Kingdom

Delivering 'public value': Implications for Accountability and Legitimacy

22. Federico Mac Dougall – Argentina

Bureaucratic change from within: a case of study from Provincia Buenos Aires, Argentina

23. Roberto da Costa Pimenta and Hermano Roberto Thiry-Cherques – Brazil

The norma and the responsibility in Brazilian public office

24. Sonia Fleury and André Godoy – Brazil

Brazilian Federal Bureaucracy in the XX1 century: insulation and accountability

25. John W. Forje – Cameroon

Servant Leadership and Good Governance the Future of the Public Service and Democracy for Africa's Transformation

26. Sandra Klashinsky – Canada

Government Tackling Complex Issues through Sustainable Strategies

27. Liu Zhongqi – China

NGOs and Civil Society under the Context of Humanistic Community Construction: Practice and Review of China

28. Yaohong Zhou – China

Two cases about the NGO development in China

29. Shih-Hsien Chang – China, Taiwan

Good Governance: Serve Citizens, Not Customers

30. Claude Rochet – France

Pas de philosophie, SVP, nous sommes des gestionnaires; Management public et bien commun

31. Masahiro Horie – Japan

Changes of Public Servants and Public Service Systems in Japan

32. Racine Oumar N'Diaye – Mauritania

Les expériences du pouvoir local en Mauritanie

33. Cecilia Cadena Inostroza – Mexico

Insuffler la bonne gouvernance: l'avenir des services publics et de la démocratie

34. Christiana O Ogbogu – Nigeria

The Role of Universities in National Development: The Nigerian Experience

35. Femi Popoola – Nigeria

Governance Crisis in Nigeria: An Empirical Analysis of Co-production as Panacea for Service Delivery

36. Natasa Tomic – Serbia

Social Impact of Women in Serbia - Once and Now

37. Ian Thynne – Australia

Institutionalism, Governance and Leadership: Administrative Responsiveness, Nationally and Globally

38. Arsène Declerc – Belgium

Réformer l'aide à la Gouvernance: comment l'Ombudsman peut-il contribuer?

39. Juliana Figale and Roberto Pimenta – Brazil

Public Service and Democracy in Brazil: Governing for and with people with disabilities

40. John Gemandze – Cameroon

Civil Service Reform, Good Governance and Democracy in Francophone Africa: Case Study of Cameroon

41. Jianglan Chen – China

Towards a more transparent and democratic government. Progresses and barriers

42. Emmanuel Kasongo Mungongo – Democratic Republic of Congo

Culture, pauvreté et constance de la sous représentation de la femme dans la Fonction publique en République Démocratique du Congo

43. Jan-Erik Johanson – Finland

Three modes of strategy formation in public agencies

44. Markku Kiviniemi and Tarja Saarelainen – Finland

Perspectives on the Potential of Local Partnerships: Conceptual and Empirical Considerations

45. Marcel Guenoun – France

Mesurer la qualité des services publics (QSP): le nécessaire aménagement des modèles existants

46. Sylvie Trosa – France

The French Public Service as Foundation of the French Identity: How does the new public management impact this historical paradigm?

47. Birgitte Abessolo – Germany

Futur des Administrations publiques: avec le partnership féminin?

48. R K Mishra – India

National Civil Service System in India: A critical overview

49. Jieun Seong and Byung-Kul Jung – Korea

Reversal of Public Sentiments and Public Protest against Government Policy in Korea: How did 'Mad Cow Disease' trigger Candlelight Vigils?

50. Heungsik Park – Korea

Moderating Role of Transparency between Corruption, Trust and Citizens' Satisfaction

51. Heungsuk Choi – Korea

Accepting Performance Evaluation or not

52. Francisco Javier Porrás Sanchez – Mexico

Local administration and citizens' participation in Mexico: evaluating the death of governance thesis

53. Daan Brummer and Berry Tholen – The Netherlands

Civic engagement in EU decision-making: a critical assessment of criteria for NGO involvement in the field of migration regulation

54. Augustine O Okafor – Nigeria

Good Governance: Transparency, ACCOUNTABILITY AND Citizen Engagement in Public Service - Core Issues in Nigerian Public Service Reforms

55. Claudia Carvalho and Carlos Brito – Portugal

Innovative Public Service Delivery - how to access the new relationship between public agencies and society?

56. Bianca Cobarzan and Dacian Dragos and Bogdana Neamtju - Romania

Administrative Capacity - A key prerequisite for the implementation of FOIA and the enhancement of good governance in rural areas of Romania

57. Catalin Vrabie – Romania

Developing e-government in reforming Romania

58. Gabriela Varia and Emil Balan – Romania

The views of citizens and civil servants on the Romanian public service - how to surpass the gap for achieving good administration?

59. Lucica Matei – Romania

Development and regulation of civil service in Central and Eastern European States. A comparative analysis in view of good governance

60. Carole L Jurkiewicz – USA

Exemplifying Good Governance: the Future of the Public Service and Democracy

61. Kim Moloney – USA

The World Bank's public sector management' projects influence the administrative priorities of developing countries

62. Lina Rombalsky – USA

Government Legitimacy

Subtheme 3: Public money: ‘whole of government’ budgeting, accounting and audit

63. Frank Naert – Belgium

How performant are European governments in their housing policies?

64. Hélio Janny Teixeira, Roy Martelanc, Hélio Costa and Maria Odeth Pereira de Almeida Teixeira – Brazil

Standardized Economic-Social-Environmental Selection of Projects in Sao Paulo

65. Yuko Kaneko – Japan

Reform of Special Accounts and the Postal Privatization

66. Michael S de Vries – The Netherlands

Performance measurement of effective and robust policies and the search for best practices

67. M Bouras – Algeria

L'expérience algérienne de gestion budgétaire et ses nouveaux chantiers

68. Danielle Morin – Canada

La cour des comptes de France: ses relations avec l'Administration et le Parlement - Quelques témoignages

69. Judith Hoffmann – Germany

The role of the legislature and its administration to enhance transparency and accountability in the budgeting process - enabling factors and constraints

70. Mohamed Harakat – Morocco

Enjeux et grands défis de la nouvelle gouvernance financière et budgétaire dans les pays en développement: cas des pays du Maghreb

71. Johan Christiaens and Jan Rommel – Belgium

Whole of government budgeting and accounting: conceptual issues

72. Li Ronghua – China

On the Role of Public Finance in the Chinese Administrative Reform - The current situation and development of Public Finance in China

73. Ching-Mei Lin – China, Taiwan

Market-based Capital Market and Readiness for a Municipal Bonds in Taiwan

74. Guang-Xu Wang – China, Taiwan

Facing the Unsolvable Problem: The Experience of Taiwan's NHI Financial Sustainability

75. Seppo Tiihonen – Finland

Public Finances and financial policies as a corner stone of state and nation building in Finland

76. Ammar Kessab – France

L'évaluation de la performance: levier des réformes des finances publiques en France

77. Francesca Mattassoglio – Italy

Sustainable development and public money: a comparison between Italian and Dutch water policy

78. Olu Okotoni – Nigeria

Governance and Fiscal Policy in Nigeria